

At Creighton, it's important that we portray real students, faculty and staff in photography and video used to represent our institution. We welcome you and everyone in our diverse campus body to be a part of this representation.

Media Release Authorization

By signing below, I give Creighton University ("Creighton") permission to take and use my photograph(s) and/or moving image(s) (whether film, video, or digital), as indicated below. Any of these types of media are referred to as "Media" in this form.

I understand that Creighton University will use, reuse, publish and display the Media for use in, but not limited to, advertisements, collateral, the University website, social media, signage, news releases or stories for any purpose or purposes Creighton may deem proper, including but not limited to, publicity, marketing materials, education, clinical or scientific purposes.

I also give permission for Creighton to identify me by my first name, course of study, class year, and hometown. Creighton may also use any testimonial words that I have provided.

I understand that the Media and my testimonial words remain the possession of Creighton.

I understand that this authorization is active unless I revoke it and that I may revoke it at any time. My revocation must be made in writing and addressed to: Creighton University Creative Director, 780480 California Plaza Omaha, NE 68178-0480, or to MediaRelease@creighton.edu. Revoking this authorization does not affect uses or disclosures already made by Creighton.
